PARIS, July 8. - The agreement reached by the Allied Council that the pathizer With Bolsheviki, trial of the former Emperor William Causes Dr. Cohn to Make would be held in London, as announced by Premier Lloyd George in the House Bitter Speech in Assembly of Commons, was a tacit one, but from American sources it was learned today that the agreement was regarded as binding.

What purports to be an authentic the account continues, and no one objected. Indeed, it is said Premier Clemenceau gave his verbal approval.

This tacit agreement was never recorded in writing, and Sir Maurice Hankey, the British Secretary, did not include it in his regular report of the proceedings in the council. The assumption is, however, it was added, that Premier Lloyd George later had unofficial conversations on the subject with one or more members of the council.
